

NOVEMBER 1966

1. Coal Charity - The Trustees will be meeting on 30th November to consider gifts of coal to those who are eligible. A notice giving details of eligibility will be displayed in the Post Office and The Stores. Applications for the coal should be made to the Rector before 30th November.
2. Womens' Institute. The W. I. Carol Singers will tour the village in the evenings of Friday 9th December; Monday 12th and Tuesday 13th. The collection will be given to the Friends of the Hospital Fund.
3. Phoenix Players. Arrangements are well in hand for the production of "Laughter in the Dark", a ghostly Christmas comedy by Victor Lucas, which is being presented at Beyton Modern School on Friday and Saturday 16th and 17th December at 7.45 p.m. Tickets at 4/- & 3/- are available from M.L.Spencer, Perkins Way or any Club member.

On the Social side, the Autumn term began with a successful Cheese and Wine Party at Beyton Modern School. Visits have been made to Ipswich Theatre, and Sudbury Dramatic Society's production of "Doctor at Sea". Next week members are supporting Thurston and Elmswell Players' productions. There are one or two seats still available for the Elmswell Play, "Me and My Girl", on Saturday 26th November. Please apply to Mrs. Spencer, Perkins Way.

4. Post Office. In September last Mr. and Mrs. R.J.Meachem resigned charge of Tostock Post Office, and Miss Wheeler and Miss Stevens took over their duties. On behalf of Tostock the Chronicle extends a warm welcome to these two ladies.
