

MARCH 1973

1. Phoenix Players and T.O.A.D.S. They invite you to their production of "Trudi and the Minstral" at Beyton Modern School on Friday and Saturday 16th and 17th March. Tickets, price 30p and 20p, are available from Mrs. Hele, telephone Beyton 360.

This enjoyable entertainment by Alan Cullen is a full length musical play about Trudi's adventures when she meets the Minstral and the Dragon.

Mrs. Millman would like to know if any resident has available indoor storage space for costumes and props, and who would be willing to store the same for the Phoenix Players and the T.O.A.D.S.? Also has anyone got an old trunk for which they have no further use?

New members are always welcome.

2. Tostock Brownies Guides. The Brownies entertained 80 parents, friends and Guides to a Thinking Day Celebration at Norton Village Hall on Saturday 24th February.

A party of Brownies will be going to see "Trudi and the Minstral" at Beyton Modern School on Friday 16th March.

Plans are being made for another Pack Holiday at Brettenham Park from 21st to 28th July.

3. Darby and Joan Club - Over 60's. The fortnightly Bingo Meetings will recommence on Thursday 15th March in the Village Hall at 7.30 p.m. Mrs. Scott announces that the charge per evening for ten games is 15p. This money is used solely for the prizes. Money raised by raffles is kept for Club expenses.

4. Parish Council.

- a. Annual Parish Meeting. This meeting, open to all residents, will be held in the Village Hall on Wednesday 28th March at 8 p.m. In Tostock this meeting is always well attended. Matters affecting the village are proposed and discussed. One item this year will be whether or not to enter for the Best Kept Village Competition - Fison Trophy. For many years Tostock won this Trophy; it was only relinquished when the Sewerage was installed.

- b. Local Government Elections. Elections for County Council, District Council and Parish Council will be held this year. Owing to the reorganisation of Local Government Tostock, with three other villages will have only one representative. In the past Mr. F.G. Armstrong has represented Tostock alone. It is hoped he will be re-elected. Details of the elections will be published nearer the dates i.e. County Council 12th April; District and Parish Councils 7th June. Please watch the local press. Nomination Forms will be available from the Parish Clerk, Mrs. Walters, "Ferndale", Norton Road. Telephone Beyton 588.

5. Village Hall. The Annual Meeting, open to all residents, will be held in the Village Hall on Monday 19th March at 8 p.m.

6. Tostock Community Council. The Annual Meeting, open to all residents, will be held in the Villags Hall on Monday 26th March at 8 p.m.

7. Women's Institute. At the meeting on 21st February the President, Mrs. Lloyd-Ward, welcomed seven new members; this totals nine new members this year. A lecture on Beauty Culture and Skin Care was given by Mrs. Lake.
A letter was read concerning a link with Norway. One member kindly said she would welcome, as a guest, the Norwegian Member, from the Oslo Housewife Organisation in June.
On Thursday 22nd March Tostock W.I. will act as hostess at the Group Meeting in Woolpit.
